HAWTHORNE RACING.

Hawthorne, still favored by delightful weather, was patronized by the average crowd of race going persons. There was much of interest at all stages of the game. Of the seventy-nine entries twenty were scratched, and thus was the quality of the racing improved. The features of the day were the ride of Thorpe on Dunois, and that of Tommy Burns on Morte Fosse as thereby was shown an ability to get a horse into the money that ridden by an inexperienced jockey must have been hopelessly beaten.

The same fourteen bookmakers "cut in." Among the notables at the track were Banker Whitten and Senator O'Brien.

Oscar's Joy sailed away so fast from the post in the first race that, rounding the turn, Conley lost his cap. He kept his head, however, and his mount was not headed and won easily. Flirtation just beat Nellie Fonso in a drive. Cheval d'Or was on the rails at the last eighth pole, but finished close up in the center of the track. Major Eskridge was in a bad place on the inside and was just behind Cheval d'Or, as was Pella B. Harry Nutter got off badly.

There was quite a delay at the post in the second race, the starter being unable to line up the horses. When he touched off his machine Lizzie Cavalier, who had stood patiently nose on the barrier for a considerable time was left standing. Johnny Williams got off, but away behind, and Treopia and Dr. Sharp had no chance, whatever, to win. Our Gertie led and Tartarian chasing her to the home stretch the pair turned the last corner four lengths ahead of Diggs. At the last eighth the favorite was done, and Our Gertie seemed to be winning when Holden, as at Diggs' last start, let go all wraps and the rejuvenated sprinter ran right over the others and won like a stake horse. Locust Blossom had been fourth at the last quarter and coming on with Diggs got the third place, but couldn't beat Our Gertie. Hindoo-net was third to the far turn and then fell away beaten.

Thirteen must be a lucky number for Starter Bruen, as in the third event of the day he sent 13 horses away from the judges stand almost in a direct line across the track. Sauterne led off and accompanied by Treeby and Brother Fred led into the home stretch as if the race was over. Now Tranby always well up made his run and at the last sixteenth passing Sauterne, came on and won as he pleased. Chugnut, interfered with on the back stretch, ran the last half very fast and finished second, while Tonto landed the third money. Joe Mussel looked to have a fighting chance three-sixteenths out. Dorothy III finished close up. Brother Fred went back every jump inside the last eighth.

Number thirteen also played a conspicuous part in the fourth race, it appearing on the back of Dunois, who, by an unfortunate jostle as the gate flew up, seemed already beaten. Thorpe, who rode the favorite, showed his class as a jockey, when, finding his horse off his stride he pulled him to the inside rail and trailed around the first turn. Once steadied, Dunois picked up one and then another of his horses, and into the homestretch ran third. Even now the race seemed hopeless for Ryan's horse, but as Amy Wade and Reuben Rowett, the leaders, fell away, Dunois got up in the last twenty-five yards and won from Morte Fosse, who also had been bumped about both at the post and on the back stretch. Amy Wade ran third. Collins, who was first for a time then third at the far turn, rated along and finished well up.

Her Favor, John Rodegap's stake filly, which was so harshly treated at Washington Park through kicks and jostles, would have won the fifth race if she had had another work in her, as leading all the way, she was only beaten in the last few strides by St. Alfonses D., who was always the contender and by far the better seasoned horse. Daisy F., the favorite, stopped in the homestretch, and Molo and Melter had as nice a finish for the third as the leading pair for the first money. Melter's number went up; he was many lengths behind the leaders three-eighths from home. Hosi was beaten off, as always.

Approval showed first of the bunch as the gate swung for the last race, but Rio Chico at once displaced him and, joined by Barney Saal, the pair were three open lengths in front swinging into the home stretch. A general shuffle up at the betting ring and W. Martin turned jack by coming from behind and winning with Approval in a hot ride with Jockey Joe. Barney Saal was third. Capsicum looked dangerous 150 yards out. Numa was knocked down on the far turn and Ellis, his jockey, thrown.

J. W. Schorr's eastern string arrived at Saratoga Wednesday. The remainder of the brewer's horses now at Harlem left for St. Louis Wednesday night. Sea Lion is there engaged Saturday in a stake race. Tommy Burns will ride at Hawthorne today, then leave for St. Louis, returning the 29th inst. to stay in Chicago until called east by Mr. Schorr's interest. The owner of W. Overton is to give his eastern division a let up and his colors will not be seen at Saratoga, the Memphis brewer being after big stakes and purses at Sheephead.

"You see," exclaimed B. J. Johnston as he triumphantly flashed a big bundle of winning tickets, "You see, I sell my horses and then bet on them. Formerly when I owned Diggs I bet on him and lost my money. Now I am going to get these tickets cashed. He ran today just like he did when a two-year-old; he always won from behind. If he ever leads up the back stretch, he is beaten to a certainty."

Barney Wolf is back from Saratoga. He reports that the crowd at the racetrack is light and that the twenty bookmakers doing business are the chief speculators, each trying to get the others' money. Leo Mayer, after losing to twelve straight races, quit the track and is keeping a pool room at Saratoga.

Jockey H. Williams, who rode Barney Saal in the last race has been suspended. Judge Rees thinks he was the cause of Numa falling in that race and the boy will remain on the ground until the matter is investigated.

This notice was posted up yesterday:

"Horses will not be allowed on the outside track at Hawthorne between the hours of 10 a. m. and the time set for the first race.

"HARRY KUHLE, Secretary."

The Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, will be run at Hawthorne next Wednesday, and the Morton Park Stakes will be disposed of the following Saturday. Two steeplechases will also be run off next week.

Beginning today, a train from Forty-third street and Lake avenue will connect with the last Chicago, Burlington and Quincy train to Hawthorne at Eighteenth street and Western avenue.

Col. Clark is to allow Vandusen, the boy set down for riding Dave Waldo when Martha II. beat him at Harlem and all bets were declared off, to ride under him when Harlem next opens.

The judges were not satisfied with Foucon's ride on Muskalonge in the fourth race and the boy was told he would have to do better from now on.

The American Military Band is furnishing good much at Hawthorne, although the musical director, J. J. Novak, is restricted to ten pieces.

Horsemen at Hawthorne can buy feed for their stock wherever they please, and can take their horses to and from the track at pleasure.

B. J. Johnston says that at his last start Little Alarm was stopped by the boy on the upper turn because of the breaking of a stirrup. Riley Grannan, who, it is understood, was not welcomed on the race track at Saratoga, has left the Springs and is now in New York city.

Jockeys H. Shields and Jesse Hart were each fined $25 for leaving the jockey's room after weighing in for the third race yesterday.

Hessville, who is in the fifth race at Hawthorne Thursday, is entered in the name of Martin Brenock, Jr.

The new names on the jockey board were S. Johnson, J. Stits, McCann and Winkfield. The latter rode Jockey Joe.

Ellis was not seriously hurt through his fall. W. C. T. was kicked badly in his last race.

GOOD JOCKEYS SCARCE.

With so many tracks in operation at the same time, it naturally follows that at each the bulk of the work in the saddle falls to lads woefully deficient in skill and experience. At St. Louis the situation in this regard is thus set forth in the Republic:

"Lack of riding talent has been the only drawback to the racing at the Fair Grounds this season. Tommy Burns and 'Skeets' Martin were the only real stars of the pigskin that rode here regularly. Burns was here with the Schorr stable for several weeks, while 'Skeets' rode for Barney Schreiber during the early part of the meeting. Willie Martin dropped in for a day to ride Timemaker in the Inaugural and later on came down from Chicago to pilot Pink Coat to victory in the Derby.

"Charlie Thorpe and Fred Littlefield also had mounts in the same race, but neither tarried here over night. 'Jumps' Combs is by far the best of the jockeys that have ridden regularly at the meeting. He can hold his own with Johnny McDonald in all the tricks of the trade, and when it comes to finishing McDonald isn't in the same class with him. McDonald knows how to handle a horse and is thoroughly familiar with the short route around the track, but his weakness in finishing is admitted by his stanchest admirers.

"Watson, a 65-pound stable boy, broke even with him Saturday in the Ed Farrell-Forbush dead heat. McDonald was astride Ed Farrell, but he failed to outstride Nepper's kid when it came to the final test. Snell rode rings around him in the Laurel Stakes, landing Ed Farrell a nose in front of McDonald's mount, Gibraltar, in a terrific finish.

"Gilmore is only a fair boy. He has a hard time of it keeping down to riding weight and weakens himself in the effort. Gilmore had a narrow escape from serious injury in a fall from Scottish Grit early in the meeting. This accounts for his timidity.

"Willie Bloss, who came down from Chicago with J. E. Cushing's string, has made a poor showing on the local track. He piloted Abuse to victory in a stake last spring. His first win since then was on Fonclif Saturday. Henry Batchelor's lightweight, Lines, is the most improved rider at the track. He was regarded as a stable boy when the meeting opened, but is now looked on as one of the best jockeys at the track. Lines has been remarkably successful on Maffitt's horses of late. He piloted Gibraltar and Sir Rolla to the front Saturday. C. Clay, the best of the Cincinnati contingent, is a poor excuse for a jockey. Rutter, who has been doing all of Schreiber's riding since Johnny Woods was released, is a good, strong jockey. He has ridden several creditable races. Judge Murphy set him down for reckless work on Moch the other day."

HORSES AT SARATOGA.

Discussing training affairs and Futurity candidates at Saratoga, "Kelston" says in the Morning Telegraph of Tuesday:

"On Sunday there was a lot of useful work done, the fastest being: White Frost, a mile in 1:42; Irish Reel, a mile in 1:43; Bangle, five furlongs in 1:03; Turtle Dove, six furlongs in 1:17; Armament, five furlongs in 1:03; and Interferer and St. Lorenzo, five furlongs in 1:05.

"The probable starters for the Futurity, which are in training here, will, I think, prove to be the following: Armament, Dr. Eichberg, Sir Hubert, Ahom, His Lordship, Bangor, Ellendale, Galahad, Interferer and St. Lorenzo. The two latter have not yet faced the starter, and as neither of them has yet been asked a question in their work they are an entirely unknown quantity.

"Both colts have done well during the month they have been here. They have had a most careful preparation, and judging from what I have seen of them the last two weeks I now think that St. Lorenzo will prove the better of the two when put to the test. No colt could have trained more satisfactorily than he has, and judging from the easy way in which he has done all that has been asked of him, I will be disappointed if he does not show a cracking good treat in the course of another week.

"Interferer, which up until recently, I thought would prove the better of the two is also much improved, but the St. Leonards colt seems able to handle him.

"Armament was a bit off after arriving here but is now all right, and may be regarded as a certain starter. The field is without doubt going to be a large one, and many trainers are in a quandary as to where to get jockeys. The Fleischmanns are well equipped in this respect. Their two candidates, Sir Hubert and Dr. Eichberg, will be steered by Martin and Sloan.

"Mr. Croker has, I understand, been in negotiations for the purchase of His Lordship, but I hear that the deal is off for the present. Anyway Mr. Smith evidently becomes more and more impressed with his colt's chances of capturing the Futurity, as the time approaches, as he has jumped his price $10,000 in the last eight days."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The New York Sun is authority for the statement that Tod Sloan is to receive $25,000 for riding for Sydney Paget, presumably for the remainder of this season and all of the season of 1899. Another report is to the effect that Sloan has some measure of financial interest in the horses lately added to the Paget string, but this report hardly seems credible.

Rebel Jack's victory at St. Louis Tuesday was such a surprising occurrence to Judge Murphy that he promptly suspended the owner of the horse. Judge Murphy has an unfriendly eye for those "surprising reversals of form" that now and then come along to take away the breath of patrons of racing who think they know a thing or two about the game.

Charles Patterson, with Great Bend and the rest of his crack flyers, will return to Latonia in a few days from Louisville. Patterson will also bring the great Handspring with him, and it is quite likely that the horse will be able to race before the end of the Newport meeting.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

H. O. Price has returned to the Hot Springs. His project for building a racetrack at that point has not yet met with the financial aid expected from Chicago racetrack managers.

T. W. Welsh, Chicago.—The surplus over the entered selling price goes half to the association and half to the owner of the second horse. "Lon" Haskell is back from Michigan.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mondays New York Sun says: "Following their prompt action in the Burlesque case on Saturday, the Stewards of the Brighton Beach meeting have ordered the Patterson colt out of the first race today, for which he was entered before his remarkable reversal of form. They also ordered that Merlin and Collateral should be stricken out of the sixth race, presumably because these horses are such bad actors at the post that it is almost impossible to effect an equable start. The stewards may have had some other object in taking this action, but they volunteered no explanation. In any case their vigilance is to be commended, as some incidents during the meeting led to a lot of dissatisfaction and grumbling among the rank and file patrons, who were always ready to jump at conclusions without troubling to inquire into the facts. Now that the presiding officials are beginning to handle matters 'without gloves,' the meeting should wind up harmoniously."

The Queens County Jockey Club officials are preparing for a banner meeting at Aqueduct. Five purses of $400 and one of $500 are hung up for the opening program next Monday, and about the same standard holds good throughout the week. The conditions are drafted in the interests of owners whose animals might be outclassed at Sheephead Bay and Gravesend, and all the smart selling platers in training on Long Island will probably figure at the meeting. Superintendent Robert Tucker has the track and inclosure in most presentable shape, and Secretary Rehberger reports that stabling accommodation for over 300 horses is already booked. Entries for the first day's races close at the track next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"Few racehorses can stand campaigning all year round," said Dan Honig, after he had lost a good bet on Zamar II, the other day. "All of my horses were in training at San Francisco last winter, and I can't expect to do much with them in this part of the country. I raced Zamar II. and Ed Gartland II. at Oakland and Ingleside all winter. Few of the steady winter campaigners have accomplished much on the summer tracks. Take Barney Schreiber's Dr. Bernays and Dr. Marks. They were right smart 3-year-olds at San Francisco, but neither has won a race here yet. Hugh Jones' Mainstay was one of the frequent winners at Frisco, but he was beaten by a lot of mutts the other day. Mainstay is a good sprinter, however, and there are few horses here that can beat him when he gets right. Fogg's 3-year-old Go to Bed, who was raced at Frisco last winter, has improved on his winter form. Horses that have been chasing him here all summer used to beat him handily on the coast.—St. Louis Republic.

Time, 24, 49, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Siddhartha—Silver Bangle.
Post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won in a mild drive; second driving hard. Belle of Memphis should have been favorite on her last race. She was the best. Gibraltar got off last and was hemmed in the deep going all the way. Nick Carter, under vigorous handling, ran true and game.

Belle of Memphis, place, 1 to 2. Nick Carter, place, 7 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Bramble—Ill Wind.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second driving. Forbush was probably the best. He was off none too well and Watson was unable to get him going until too late. Belle Bramble had the speed of the party and used it at the right time. The Elector is not at his best. He will do better with a man up.

Overweights—Forbush, 2 pounds.

Belle Bramble, place, 3 to 1. Forbush, place, 3 to 10.

Weather clear; track fast.

Presiding Judge, Capt. J. H. Rees. Starter, William Bruen.

Racing starts at 2:15 p. m. No recall flag used.

Time, 251, 494, 1:024, 1:15, 1:28.
Winner—B. c. by Isaac Murphy—Easter Day.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving to the limit. Melter perhaps should have won. He was worsted at the start, made up ground gradually down the back stretch, and when straightened away for home was badly pocketed. It seemed that every horse that got near to him in the race interfered with him. St. Alfonses D. was lucky and well ridden. He was always in a good position and took the short route. If anything, Everett outfinished Burns a trifle. Her Favor had the speed of the party. She looked a sure winner on the stretch turn. The ride on Molo was frightful. The boy had him on the outside all the way and was unable to hold him straight in the stretch. Daisy F. ran below her notch. Throw her race out.
Scratched—Eleanor Holmes, 102; Bellamy, 104; Sybaris, 107.
St. Alfonses D., place, 4 to 5. Her Favor, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Melter, show, 1 to 2.

Presiding Judge, J. J. Burke. Starter, M. Byrnes.

Racing starts at 1:00 p. m.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Darebin—Haytiene.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Challenger has a very bad leg. He struck the third hurdle and sulked thereafter, falling at last hurdle. Lady Dainty had the best of the weights. She jumped well and ran a fast race. Governor Budd ran an improved race, and is game.
Governor Budd, place, 4 to 5.

The Telegraphic Service over Racing Form's Daily Selections has been remodeled and in future subscribers at $4 per week, will be sent only a succinct telegram of some twenty words, night rate Western Union Message, containing the refined selections in all the races of the following day.
